DESCRIPTION

A detached family house consisting of colour washed elevations beneath a tiled roof, fully double glazed with the benefit of oil fired central heating. The property has been tastefully modernised throughout in recent years with stylish accommodation including reception hall, dual aspect living room with space for study/library area to one end and central log burning stove to opposite end. There is well appointed open plan kitchen with breakfast area with folding glazed doors onto the main terrace and garden as well as a well equipped utility with adjacent shower room/WC. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. Outside the property has generous off road parking to the front aspect and a wrap round terrace to the rear with level garden exiting on to one side, this is well enclosed and there is a detached brick under tile garage converted into an ideal home office/studio.

Agents Note: We are also marketing an adjacent plot where there is planning permission to build a detached bungalow the guide price for this land is £150,000.

LOCATION

This property is situated in the picturesque village of Hatherden which has a church and public house. The nearby town of Andover, approximately three and a half miles to the south, offers a comprehensive range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities, as well as a mainline railway station providing fast services to Waterloo (in just over one hour). The A303 is close at hand allowing convenient access to London and the West Country. Newbury, Salisbury, Winchester and Basingstoke are all within about half an hour's drive.
